Matthew Bible Study

If contemplating whether to join the Bible Study, please keep in mind the following:

- * Matthew is a very short & easy read with which we are familiar.
- * For a deeper understanding of Scripture, we will learn about the connection between the Old & New Testaments - WOW moments!
- * If you cannot attend some sessions, not to worry - you will have all the needed materials (with answers) & may borrow the DVD.
- * DVD will be shown at the beginning so if your time is limited, you may leave afterwards.
- * If you have time & enjoy small group discussions with fellow parishioners, please stay.
- * The Church for this coming year will be using Matthew as the primary Gospel! (Cycle A).

Read Matthew 28:16-20.

Q: Of what name of Jesus, a name Matthew emphasized in chapter 1, are these words a reminder- 'I am with you always, to the close of age.'?

A: The words harken back (see Isaiah 7:14, 8:8) to Jesus' name Emmanuel, which means 'God with us'. In the Holy Spirit & in his real presence in the Eucharist, God is with us in a far deeper way than he ever had been."

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I appeal to you today to give generously to the National Collection for The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

Catholic University is unique as the national university of the Catholic Church and the only higher education institution founded by the U.S. bishops and chartered by the Vatican. As such, it has a special responsibility to educate future leaders for our Church and our Nation. In this sense, The Catholic University of America belongs to all of us in the Church, regardless of where we live.

The financial sacrifices required of Catholic parents to provide a truly Catholic college education are enormous. All of the funds received through this collection will underwrite the financial aid program at the university. Simply put, your contributions directly benefit students at Catholic University from all over the United States, including our own diocese, by funding scholarships for those who would not otherwise be able to attend. Every year, nearly 3,000 students at CUA receive scholarship support through the funds raised via the National Collection for Catholic University. Students at CUA receive personalized attention in a wide range of programs, combining an excellent liberal arts curriculum with courses in their major fields of study. Grounded in the philosophy of the Catholic intellectual tradition, these students are well prepared for success in life and ready to make a difference in today's world.

The Collection for the Catholic University will be held in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia on the weekend of August 17th/18th. Thank you and God Bless you for your generous support.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

Mass Intentions for 2014

The new Mass Book will open to accept Mass intentions for 2014 on Saturday, August 17th from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM in the Trinity Center. Due to the new Mass schedule for 2014, there will be fewer Masses available than previous years. R. C. I. A

Eucharistic Adoration

St. Padre Pio of Pietrelcina would sometimes say to his spiritual children, "Do you not see the Madonna always beside the tabernacle?" And how could she fail to be there ---she who "stood by the Cross of Jesus" on Calvary (John 19:25)? And St. Maximilian M. Kolbe (feast day, August 14) used to recommend that when we go before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, we never fail to remember Mary's presence, calling on her, and associating ourselves with her.

OLGC Church remains open Tuesday through Saturday until 2:00 PM. for visits with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.
