Giving Tree*

Ho! Ho! Ho! It's that time of year again. Bells ring, children sing and the unfortunate really need our help.

The Giving Tree is now in the vestibule of the church. The tree will be decorated with Christmas bells asking for small gifts (shampoo, hand lotion) and larger items (sweaters, etc.).

Please place your unwrapped gift (with the card attached) under the tree by December 15th. Your Gifts will be given to the residents of local nursing homes, St Francis Inn and St. Vincent's Church in Germantown.

Just like last year ,some of "Christmas bells " will be asking for tuition aid assistance or gift cards to local stores eg. Acme or Giant. For your convenience these gift cards can be purchased at OLGC Script office. These gifts will help those in our parish family who have a temporary need this year. When you purchase your gift card from the Script office, this will also benefit our tuition aid program. Please put these gift cards and tuition aid gifts in an envelope marked Giving Tree in the Saturday or Sunday collection basket by December 15th.

Please be an angel to those in need. If you have questions, or can volunteer to set up the tree, replenish "Christmas bells", gather/deliver gifts, please call Monica Pinciotti at 267-252-6500.

The Feminine Genius: Every Woman's Gift

Saturday, December 7th 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Pennsylvania Convention Center

We invite all women – married, single, and consecrated – to join us for the first Archdiocesan Catholic Women's Conference in Philadelphia. The day will begin with Mass celebrated by Archbishop Chaput, who affirms the significance of this gathering: “The Catholic Women's Conference opens a door to the most beautiful kind of renewal, the kind that comes from an authentic feminine leadership in the family, in the community, in business, in education, and in public life. I wholeheartedly support this event.”

Throughout the day, various speakers will address the Catholic perspectives on how we, as women of faith, can respond with an authentic feminine presence to transform every aspect of life and society. We will have two simultaneous tracks; one for adults and one for high school girls, both with Mass, speakers, breakout sessions, and opportunities for confession.

This event is the initiative of Catholic women from various parishes in Philadelphia, hosted by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and Endow.

The cost of registration includes the all-day conference, a light breakfast, and lunch. To register online, please visit <http://endowgroups.org/conference-registration/>
