Father O'Donald will speak at ALL Masses on 10/26-10/27

Sunday
Jesus is the same yesterday

Our Faith has not popped out of nowhere but rather is deeply grounded in history. Salvation History shows us how from the first moments of human existence God has sought a relationship with us. This started with the covenants Abraham, Moses, and David. It continued with the prophets and culminate in the coming of Christ. Christ is the fulfillment of Old Testament law, sacrifice and prophets. Christ entered at a moment in history and is an historical reality.

Monday
Jesus is the same today

Although Christ is an historical person, he is very much alive and with us today. Christ is with us most especially in the Eucharist. At every Mass we too get to be present on Calvary. Though Christ is also present to us in His Word (Sacred Scripture) and in the love that we share with one another. We need to invite God into our lives, knowing that the way we are able to carry our daily crosses and trials is through God's grace.

Tuesday
Jesus is the same forever

God is constant, he is immutable, which means God does not change, he is the same yesterday, today, and forever. This means we don't have to worry about God changing, becoming different or abandoning us. God love us no matter what, it is we who remove ourselves from God's love by our sin. We must grow in our trust of God and His providence. This can be stuff but when we place God in the center of our lives, we soon learn that he takes care of the rest. Not because we get everything we want but everything enters the right perspective.

Souls of the Faithful Departed

A book of remembrance has been placed in the vestibule of church to which you may add the names of your loved ones who have passed to eternal life. This book will be brought to the altar at our parish Mass of the Faithful Departed on Tuesday, November 5th at 7:00 p.m. The book will remain on the altar during the month of November; the month of All Souls. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Thank you to those who donated at our recent OLGC Red Cross Blood Drive. We collected 85 units which will make a huge impact and is greatly appreciated by the recipients. Please consider joining us at our next drive, Monday February 17th 2020 from 1-7PM in the Trinity Center. It is not too soon to sign up and many did so at this recent drive. So act now to get the donation time slot you want. Call Peg Junod at (215) 364-1719 to sign up for February. Thank You!

Peg & Michael Junod

Attention: All Aid for Friends Cooks & Visitors

Please do not contribute commercially-prepared meals to Aid for Friends. These meals are often high in sodium and artificial ingredients that are poorly tolerated by our frail, elderly clients. In addition, the meals are sometimes packaged in other countries where quality-control standards are not what they should be. Visitors, if you find commercially-prepared meals in the church freezer, please do not use them. Please contact Suzanne Kuhn, 215-355-5846, SuzanneRKuhn@msn.com with any questions or concerns.

Presentation: What Can We Do? The Role of the Laity in a Time of Crisis

As the Church undergoes this period of profound crisis, many of us feel helpless as we watch a drama unfold that we can do nothing about. But the truth is that we are not powerless. The history of the Church tells us that lay people have a role to play in the Church's times of turmoil. Join us for an evening of reflection on the mission of the laity in times of ecclesial crisis and learn what you can do to cooperate with Christ's action to purify and heal His Church. Speaker: Meghan Cokeley, Director, Office for the New Evangelization, Archdiocese of Philadelphia. No charge to attend. More details and RSVP at phillyevang.org/events. Date/time options for this talk:

- Mon, Nov 4 at 7 PM - Mother Boniface Ctr, Philadelphia
- Tues, Nov 12 at 7:15 PM – Nativity, Warminster

Help Wanted-Aid for Friends

Aid for Friends at Our Lady of Good Counsel is looking for volunteer visitors to deliver 7 meals once a week to isolated, homebound clients and to spend up to an hour visiting the client. When you deliver is entirely up to you and your client: Morning, afternoon or evening, weekdays or weekends. Prior to visiting, you will have a brief orientation session at a mutually convenient time. If you are already a visitor, but your client has discontinued Aid for Friends' services, please let us know. For either purpose, please contact parish coordinator Suzanne Kuhn at 215-355-5846 or SuzanneRKuhn@msn.com.

JESUS FOCUS FOOD PANTRY THANKS YOU!

(excerpt from a letter received from Jesus Focus Ministry Food Pantry at Bethana)

"Your gift of $505.00 ...will go a long way to support those experiencing food insecurity. Thank you.
Your partnership not only feeds vulnerable households but encourages our pantry volunteers (over 60 of them!) … It is a big job; we couldn't do it without the support of the Congregation of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church. "
Most grateful,
Karen Hamilton-Derry
President and CEO
"Thank you for your faithful support and all you do in the community"

Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.

Visit the Blessed Sacrament

Receiving our Lord present in the Eucharist comprises the pinnacle of the Christian Life; for it is there that we have an intimate communion with Christ Jesus that transforms us to the extent that our souls are receptive to these great graces. But people often forget that we can stop by a Catholic Church on any day of the week, and simply converse with our Lord present really and truly just feet away from us. We must always remember that without the Mass, there would be no Eucharist, and therefore, no Jesus to visit in the Blessed Sacrament. Receiving the Eucharist in Holy Communion is of primary importance. Nonetheless, the second best thing is at least coming close to our Lord in the Eucharist, firstly in Eucharistic Exposition when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed to our eyes, and secondly when it is hidden, and remains behind the locked door of the tabernacle. In either case, it is known as Eucharistic Adoration, though the exposed form is preferable.

Advent, the beginning of the Church Year is an ideal time to spend time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Monday Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament follows the 9 AM Mass until 7:30 PM. Tuesday through Friday, the church is open for visits to the Blessed Sacrament following the 9 AM Mass until 2:00 PM. The church is also open for visits to the Blessed Sacrament on Saturday following the 8 AM Mass until evening Mass

Come let us praise the Lord with joy: let us joyfully sing to God our saviour.
