Boy Scout Troop 144 Open House

When: January 19th 7:15 to 8:30

Where: Monsignor D'Angelico Cultural Center

Do you know a 10-17 year old boy? Think he may be interested in Archery, hiking, white-water rafting, camping, canoeing and other outdoor adventures? Maybe he wants to learn skills to survive in the wilderness? If you answered "yes" to any of these questions then you NEED to come to our Open House!

No prior experience is needed to become a Boy Scout.

Our Boy Scouts pledge their Duty to God in both the Scout Oath and Scout Law. Scouting is viewed very favorably as an extra-curricular activity by all colleges and universities, and Eagle Scouts are often selected for admission before straight-A students from top schools.

It is well known that Scouting builds good citizens and strong leaders who serve our community in many ways -- through service projects, Eagle projects, and public service performed by current and former Scouts. Scouting instills personal qualities sought by business and by the public sector. Scouts and families of Scouts forge life-time friendships with other Scouts and Scout families.

A Fragile Commemoration

On January 22, 1973, the Supreme Court, in the Roe vs. Wade decision, made its worst mistake in history. By declaring that children in the womb are not "persons," it opened the door to tens of millions of abortions. The website of the Alan Guttmacher Institute (formerly the research arm of Planned Parenthood, which is the single largest source of abortions in America), states, "From 1973 through 2011, nearly 53 million legal abortions occurred." It also points out that "Twenty-one percent of all pregnancies (excluding miscarriages) end in abortion," and that abortions at 21 weeks of pregnancy or later number somewhere around 12,720 per year in America. In 2011, there were 1.06 million abortions in our country. Indeed, as we mark another Roe vs. Wade commemoration, it is time for all of us to get involved in the efforts to end abortion. Visit this website: www.TenStepsToEndAbortion.com to learn what you can do.
